

Morristown Art Association Newsletter

Nov. 27th, 2018 (4th Tuesday) at 7 PM

Program: Jim Hodge, a stained glass artist, will present the program on how to do stained glass art.

Artist of the month (actually I change it on the 15th) –Mike Everidge has been our artist of the month Oct. and Nov. We will change it soon and it will be Jim Palmer. In order to be chosen, you must be a member and have your work displayed on the web. You may have 10 pieces, a bio and a personal photograph in order to be considered. Please contact the webmaster (bravio@hotmail.com.) We will change it on the 15th to a new member. The members are chosen randomly and are not shown twice in a year.

Library Show: The photography show is now hanging at the library. It will come down at the end of November and the Member's Show will go up. The show is presented on the <http://morristownart.org> website.

Members' show: Members have a way to show whatever they wish for their art. As the name implies it is for members only. We also allow any member to vote for the top 3 choices for awards by your peers. The votes are tallied and the winners are presented in January at the meeting. They will also be posted on the web page: <http://morristownart.org>

Our challenge:

Nov. – do a painting like old time artist with a composition using the triangle method of composition.

There is no challenge for December since there is no meeting.

The challenges for 2019 are posted on the webpage <http://morristownart.org>

For a heads-up for January 22nd it is "Native American"

Refreshments: Vincent and Donna Aarons

Nominations for officers for 2019 –this is the month when we are to nominate people from the floor for offices for the next year although the nominating committee will present a slate of officers. We will vote on the officers for 2019 and they are then installed and will take office in January. It is always difficult to find people to do the jobs so we have people doing the same job year after year for 4, 5, 6, etc. years. It would be nice if we could get members to step up and take some of the jobs. The By-Laws are posted on the web page to see their jobs.

- President- conducts all meetings, sets the direction for MAA, appoints committees, conducts business outside meetings for MAA.
- 1st Vice President –arranges for the programs (does not have to do this alone) and conducts meetings in the absence of the president.
- 2nd Vice President – is basically a social chairman. Provides for all social services along with scheduling those who will provide refreshments.

- Secretary – keeps minutes if all meetings, keeps all documents that are pertinent to the MAA.
- Treasurer – Keeps the finances of the MAA and has the numbers audited once a year and the results are presented to the president.
- Time to audit our finances. Normally the president will appoint a member who is pretty good with numbers to do the audit. It will be presented in January.

New Members: I invited a new member at the Girls Inc. fund raiser. I would encourage you to invite people to visit if they express and interest in art. Although this organization has existed for almost 50 years, many people are still not aware of it. The posting of the art at the Library and the Arts in the Park celebration both have exposed our organization in the community and the artists who take part in various celebrations around town have also invited those interested. I encourage you to remember to “talk up” MAA.

Membership Dues: Our dues for 2019 are now payable. Remember to get the discount that the members are entitled to receive you must pay the dues by Dec. 31. This was implemented several years ago because some members were not paying their dues until they entered the June Juried art show. Our bylaws only allow member discounts for the Juried Art show, but we have been allowing discounts for the photography show, the Arts in the Park members’ tent, and for workshops. We will need to change the by-laws to make those discounts official.

HERE ARE THE BY-LAWS WITH SOME SUGGESTED CHANGES THAT THE MEMBERSHIP NEEDS TO LOOK AT.
